

Phase 1: Your Feedback Review

Look at the feedback from your previous writing. What are the three most important ‘Sentence Boundaries’ you need to fix today?

Repair Target 1: Comma Splice

Repair Target 2: Fused Sentence

Repair Target 3: The Infinite 'And'

Phase 2: The Grammar Crime Scene

Mystery 1: The Comma Splice

Aunna: “I agree that fear often stops people from achieving what they want to, Fear of failure...”

The Fix: Use a Full Stop and a Capital Letter. A comma is too weak.

Mystery 2: The Fused Sentence

Fergie: “I was secondary 2 my teacher needs a volunteer for an english competition”

The Fix: Two separate facts need a wall between them. Add a full stop.

The “Infinite Because” Flow

Students often write 40 words without a stop. In Thai, thoughts flow like a river. In English, we need to Stop, Breathe, and Start again.

"I agree that fear stops people... because sometimes fear makes us feel scared because I think my grammar is not very good and I think others did better."

Rule: One 'because' is okay. Two is too many. Stop!

Phase 3: The Big Fix (7 Repairs)

Find the “invisible walls” between thoughts. Add the Full Stop (.) and the Big Letter (Capital) where they are missing.

- 1. I am so tired I want to go to bed.

- 2. She is very kind, everyone likes her.

- 3. My friend lives in London, mean while I live in Bangkok.

- 4. We went to the mall we bought some new shoes for the party.

- 5. I agree with the statement because fear can stop us from doing things and it makes us feel small and we lose our confidence.

- 6. The movie was extremely long, therefore many people left before the end.

- 7. Success takes risk because without risk you cannot grow, failure is just a lesson.
